

NGO Resources – financial, human, personal

19th - 25th March 2015 – Lake of Thun / Switzerland

A training course for manager and trainers of youth NGOs to work on their resources system

DESCRIPTION	"NGO resources" was created to meet concrete needs of NGOs in the youth field: Exploring strategies to establish a financial base that includes funding from the local community; exploring strategies to strengthen human resources through recruiting, motivating and empowering volunteers; exploring strategies to manage personal resources for NGO managers that will enable them to increase productivity simultaneously balanced and healthy lifestyle. The course took place for the first time in November 2013. Due to the high need of NGOs for their structural development, it was further developed and is advertised again.
PARTICIPANTS	30 participants from European and neighbouring countries
PROFILE OF PARTICIPANTS	Managers, project leaders, trainers and directors of youth work NGOs that are involved in the development of their organization.
METHODS	Exchange of best practices, non-formal, and interactive working setting: This training course is focusing on exploration of resources in a holistic perspective through group work, individual work and sharing. The course is action-based and will implement the development of a NGO strategy.
TEAM OF TRAINERS	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ≡ Leilani van der Rheenen, Turkey ≡ Yehuda Stolov, Israel ≡ Oliver Schneitter, Switzerland More Information: oschneitter@gmx.ch, +41 76 338 93 51

Financed by:

COSTS	Accommodation and food during the training course will be covered by the training course. Travel costs up to 250 EUR – minus a participation fee of 60 EUR - will be reimbursed after the training course. For EU neighboring countries, the travel costs can be negotiated bilaterally.
INSURANCE AND VISA	All participants are responsible for their travel and health insurance. Participants that need a visa for Switzerland are asked to contact the local Swiss embassy and the hosting organisation of this training course as soon as they got approved as participants.
WORKING LANGUAGE	English (all participants are required to be able to communicate in English)
OBJECTIVES OF THE TRAINING COURSE	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ≡ To provide the opportunity for organisations to meet and explore general needs of youth NGOs in Europe and its neighboring countries ≡ To explore financial resources possibilities for youth work NGOs on both a local and international level ≡ to explore strategies to increase the capacity of organizations through building their financial, human, and personal resources ≡ To identify personal, professional and educational development opportunities that NGOs can provide for volunteers to ensure their long term cooperation and future employability ≡ To discuss the similarities and differences related to NGO management in relation to the varying realities of the participating countries ≡ To develop strategy plans that enable the participating organisations to reach their goal in terms of resources development in order to provide quality youth work in a regional, national and international level
INTERESTED?	Then please apply under http://goo.gl/ZLPcck

TRAINER INFORMATION: LEILANI VAN RHEENEN	Of Dutch origin born and raised in Brazil. She originally went to Turkey as a volunteer and has managed the organization she was originally volunteering in. According to Leilani learning how to manage an NGO in a foreign country at such a young age was one of her most important learning experiences and opportunities for personal development. She is currently a self-employed trainer and coach still living in Turkey and working with the Turkish National Agency within the context of Youth in Action and Lifelong Learning. You can see Leilani's trainer profile at http://www.salto-youth.net/tools/toy/leilani-van-rheenen.1714/.
TRAINER INFORMATION: YEHUDA STOLOV	Executive director of the Interfaith Encounter Association, an organization that works since 2001 to build peaceful inter-communal relations in the Holy Land by fostering mutual respect and trust between people and communities through active interfaith dialogue. In 2006, he is a member of the International Council of the International Association for Religious Freedom and was awarded the Immortal Chaplains Foundation Prize for Humanity, which honors those who "risked all to protect others of a different faith or ethnic origin." Among other activities, Dr. Stolov was a member of the steering committee for the United Nations Decade of interreligious Dialogue and Cooperation for Peace. He holds a B.Sc. and an M.Sc. in Physics and a Ph.D. from the Hebrew University of Jerusalem.
TRAINER INFORMATION: OLIVER SCHNEITTER	Works as a Project Manager in the field of cultural and non-governmental work and as a trainer for a Swiss youth organization where he was responsible for trainings in social work, project management and holistic development, mainly based on outdoor activities. He holds a master degree in Culture Management, Religion Studies and Theology and completed the Youth in Action Training of Trainers. With his own association "Verein Naturkultur" he is developing and running trainings on outdoor activities, interfaith and intercultural activities and personal development, as recently the SALTO-training on leadership within the youth work sector.