

CALL FOR PARTICIPANTS

Accompanying young people on their way to choose their professional path

THE PROJECT

New Perspective is a training course that aims to give youth workers tools and methods to develop vocational counseling activities for the youngsters in your community.

Our Objectives

- ◆ To develop youth worker's competences in the field of vocational counselling - accompanying young people on their way to choose their professional path
- ◆ To learn various vocational counselling tools, that youth workers could use for setting up vocational counseling programs at their own
- ◆ To create and deploy 4 vocational counseling programs for young people adapted to the needs of their communities

With this aim we are looking for:

- ◆ Youth workers who wish to pass on to other young people they work with, methods, activities and know-how generated through the project about vocational counseling
- ◆ People who are available to be actively involved both before, during the training, as well as in the process of dissemination and exploitation of results
- ◆ People who are willing to self-question and rediscover themselves, being open to learn new personal development ways
- ◆ Have communication skills in English at least medium
- ◆ Minimum age: 18.

We propose a rich programs including key activities such us:

- Self-introspection around personal values and objectives in life
- Finding the right balance between everyday needs and today's reality
- Testing and applying different vocational counselling tools and exchanging feedback with each others
- Belding up a program that could be applied in their own community

Venue

Our journey will start in a mountain chalet in Apuseni Mountains, Romania named The Paradise Valley. The accommodation will be organised in rooms of two or three persons (individual beds in each).

The Paradise Valley Guesthouse is located on the Some ului Rece Valley in the Apuseni Mountains, Cluj County. The access to the pension is made from Gil u town on the county road that makes the connection between Cluj and Alba counties, crossing the Gil ului Mountains.
